

WATCHING, WAITING, HOPING

AN ADVENT QUIET DAY

PARISH OF THE ASCENSION

Saturday, November 26, 10:30 am-1:00 pm

You are invited to join in An Advent Quiet Day as we explore and reflect on the Advent, themes of Waiting, Watching and Hoping as they relate to our lives today. Reverend Jolene Peters will host the event and her talks will be presented as a series of reflections and stories that will be frequently personal, and always challenging. The talks will include prayer, music and scripture and there will be times for quiet prayer and reflection between her talks. You are invited to bring along a boxed lunch, tea and coffee will be available. Open to women and men. The times listed are a guide, the day could be finished earlier than listed.

- 10:30 a.m. Registration and Welcome
- 10:45 a.m. First Reflection “WATCHING”
- 11:15 a.m. Quiet reflection
- 11:30 a.m. Second Reflection “WAITING”

LET ALL THE PEOPLE PRAISE THEE

Let all the people praise thee!
Let all of the people praise thy name,
O God, forevermore!

Let all the nations bless thee!
Let all of the nations bless thee now,
O God, and bow before.

Let every creature thee adore,
And spread thy truth from shore to shore!

Let all the people praise thee!
Let all the people praise thy name,
O God, forevermore.

O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come.
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.
Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
