WORSHIP SERVICE

WELCOME AND GREETING

Leader Welcome to our World Day of Prayer service, celebrated all over the world in the seven regions of our World Day of Prayer family: Asia, Africa, Caribbean/North America, Europe, Latin America, Middle East, and Pacific. This is reflected in our service as we light seven candles.

Warmest greetings from the women of England, Wales, and Northern Ireland. Together with Scotland, they form the United Kingdom, known as the British Isles, which is situated in north-western Europe.

We rejoice that, although they have many things in common, England, Wales and Northern Ireland are proud to be multi-ethnic, multi-cultural and multi-faith societies, anxious to preserve differences of language and culture. Over the years the British Isles have welcomed people from all corners of the Earth. Some have chosen to come, and others are refugees fleeing from persecution in their own lands.

We rejoice in the variety of natural beauty found in the British Isles: its mountains and craggy moorland, its fertile fields and pastureland, its rolling downs and spectacular coastal scenery, its small islands.

The theme of our service today is God's promise, found in the book of Jeremiah: 'I Know the Plans I Have for You'. Focusing on freedom, forgiveness, justice, and God's peace, let us see how this promise can be a sign of hope for all people.

OPENING PRAYER

Leader In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, God said, 'Let there be light!'

Candle #1 The first candle is lit.

All God, giver of life,
we light a candle of hope
to celebrate with all your people
as we watch and wait for your plans and promises to be fulfilled.

Leader The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of deep darkness
a light has dawned.

All God of hope,
In our busy-ness may we find space to see you at work in our lives and our world.

May we be people who radiate your hope as we worship in celebration today.

Amen.

(Pause – moment of reflection)

HYMN 403 Let all Things Now Living

Candle #2 The second candle is lit.

All God, giver of life,
we light a candle of hope
to celebrate with all your people
as we watch and wait for your plans and
promises to be fulfilled.

PRAYERS OF CONFESSION – The Salvation Army

Leader God told the people of Judah to care for both the people and the place of exile. Often, we fall short of caring for God's world and God's people. Let us bring those times to God and ask forgiveness.

Merciful God, we come to you in confession.

We are aware that much of the suffering our sisters and brothers around the world face is a result of our colonial past. We acknowledge this and are sorry that, as a country, we have often put ourselves first, at the expense of others.

Silence

All Gracious God, forgive us
God, in your mercy, forgive us

Leader We think of your beautiful world and how we have taken it for granted and squandered its resources.

Silence

Generous God, forgive us

All God, in your mercy, forgive us
Silence

Leader Our sisters and brothers cry out to you; we have failed to love them well. We have not loved our neighbours as you have taught us. Sometimes we have not even loved ourselves.

Silence

Compassionate God, forgive us.

All God, in your mercy, forgive us
Silence

All God, in your mercy, help us to act on your call for repentance.

Silence

Leader Jesus, thank you that through your sacrifice we are forgiven.
Holy Spirit, transform our hearts and minds, so that we may live and love as Jesus showed us.

All Amen
Pause for reflection

HYMN 500 vs 1,3,5 Sister Let Me Be Your Servant

VOICES OF WOMEN – The Church of the Ascension

Leader The people of Jeremiah's time found themselves in a place where they did not want to be: away from their homeland and excluded from their culture, worship, and homes. There are many people who have settled in the British Isles after fleeing their homeland and culture. In the land of prosperity many are poor. In the midst of crowded cities many are lonely. How can we tell ALL their stories? We cannot. What does it mean to feel excluded in England, Wales, and Northern Ireland? Let us listen..

Reader 1 (Lina): Living in poverty, regularly missing a meal so that my children might not go hungry.

Reader 2 (Natalie): Living in fear because my partner abuses me, physically, emotionally, and sexually.

Reader 3 (Emily): Living in loneliness and isolation because of my age, disability, ethnic origin, or sexuality.

Candle #3 The third candle is lit.

All    God of love, we light a candle of hope to celebrate with all your people as we watch and wait for your plans and promises to be fulfilled.

STORIES OF HOPE –

Leader        There are times in our lives when we find ourselves in situations where we do not want to be. Sometimes, like the exiles in Babylon, we cannot see a way forward and long for God to intervene. When God does, it is often in ways that we could never have imagined and not at all as we expected.

Listen to the true stories of three women who found themselves living in difficult situations, and of how God’s plans for them have blessed them in very unexpected ways.

Reader 1: LINA’s STORY

I will be sharing Lina’s (Lee-nah) story in her words:

“I have helped my son to bring up my four grandsons after their mother left them. My son struggles with mental health issues and cannot work, so there is very little money for even their basic needs. I used to go without food myself in order to buy food for him and the boys.

Five years ago, my grandsons attended an event at my local church, where they were welcomed warmly. Since then, this church has become our wider family. They help us with regular donations of food from the foodbank and have helped us with clothing and holidays for the family. One member of the congregation is a retired teacher and helped the grandchildren with their homework on a Wednesday night. Through the love of this church, we have found a safe space, people who love us and will not let us down. I thank God for working out the plans to bless us, and for giving us hope and a future, through my local church.”

Candle #4 The fourth candle is lit.

All                    God of care,
                          we light a candle of hope
                          to celebrate with all your people
                          as we watch and wait for your plans and
                          promises to be fulfilled.

Reader 2: NATALIE'S STORY

I will be sharing Natalie's story:

“It didn't always feel like fear when I was with my abusive partner. Mostly I felt uneasy, like I was treading on eggshells, unsure of what he was going to do next or what he was going to make me do next. His indifference towards me stung. His unkindness shriveled me up inside. His threats made me paranoid. God was a weapon he used to control me. I was a shell of who I used to be.

When I was pregnant, he hurt me so badly that the baby was born early. In the days I spent in the hospital, not knowing if my child would live, God spoke to me; “Stop praying for your child to live. Instead, pray for my will to be done.” I said, “Yes” to God, who offered only to be present, with no promises that everything would be okay. And yet....

.... my baby is now 13 years old, happy, and healthy. My life has been filled with more joy and beauty than I ever thought possible, and I am free from the man who abused me so terribly. No longer do I fear; God has good plans for me.”

Candle #5 The fifth candle is lit.

All                    God of tenderness,
                          we light a candle of hope
                          to celebrate with all your people
                          as we watch and wait for your plans and
                          promises to be fulfilled.

Reader 3: EMILY'S STORY

I will be sharing Emily's story in her own words:

"I had plans for my life. I would go to university and become a teacher. But when I was 16, I was diagnosed with brain tumours and needed lots of surgery. One operation saved my life but caused me to lose my hearing. I was terrified in my world of silence. All thoughts of a career in education vanished. I struggled to understand what people said to me as I watched their lips move. I struggled to understand sign language, too. I felt caught between the hearing world and the deaf world, fitting into neither. I became very isolated and withdrawn. I wanted to end my life, but God had other plans. As I gradually accepted that my plans could not happen, I asked God to use my life for his glory, and God began to show me his plans. God wanted me to use my story for him. God knows the plans he has for me, and I have learned that I do not need to know them. I need to trust God. I am better at lip reading and sign language now, although I still struggle to understand what people say sometimes. But I know that whatever I go through, God whispers peace and love into my heart. And I do not need to be able to hear to know his whisper."

Candle #6 The sixth candle is lit.

All                    God of compassion,
we light a candle of hope
to celebrate with all your people
as we watch and wait for your plans and
promises to be fulfilled.

Leader            The people walking in darkness have seen a great light. Jesus said: "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life." (John 8:12)

God's promises of freedom, forgiveness, justice, and peace are fulfilled in Jesus, the life-giving light which even the deepest darkness cannot extinguish. Through Jesus we are able to come close to God and discern God's plans for us.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING – First United Church

Reader God of the past, the present and the future, we thank you that you love us faithfully and uniquely.
You loved us before we knew anything about you: you care for us in every moment of our lives; you know our deepest thoughts, our highest hopes, and our greatest fears; you know the best and the worst in us, and still, you love us.
Thank you that you never let us go.
Thank you for the plans and promises you have made for us, which give us hope for today and tomorrow.
God of our past, our present and our future, receive our thanks and praise, which we offer in Jesus' name.

All Amen.

Reader The prophet Jeremiah lived some 600 years before the birth of Christ, at a time of great political crisis. The southern kingdom of Judah had been invaded by the Babylonians and many of its people taken from Jerusalem into exile. The people had lost the land they believed God had given them and they longed to return, but the future looked bleak. Our chosen passage is part of a letter from Jeremiah, setting out God's plan for the exiles:

they are to stay where they are and make new lives for themselves in this foreign land.

BIBLE READING – Jeremiah 29: 1 – 14 – St. Peter’s Church

Reader These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. This was after King Jeconiah, and the queen mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the artisans, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.’ (Jeremiah 29:1-2)

Reader Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, that they may have sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let the prophets and the diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that they dream, for it is a lie that they are prophesying to you in my name; I have not sent them, says the Lord.’(Jeremiah 29:4-9)

Reader

For thus says the Lord: Only when Babylon's seventy years are completed will I visit you and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place. For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me, says the Lord, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the Lord, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.'(Jeremiah 29:10-14)

HYMN

(Sung Twice)

For surely I know the plans I have for you.

The Lord said:

Surely, I know the plans I have for you.

Plans for your welfare, plans to not harm you,

And to give you hope again.

For surely I know the plans I have for you.

DEVOTIONAL MESSAGE: The Rev. Lynn Courage*REFLECTION /RESPONSIVE ACTION – Mary Queen of the World*Reader

As we reflect upon God's promise to the people of Judah, at each pause think silently.

“For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you.” (Jeremiah 29:11)

As you leave the church you may take a packet of seeds.

A seed is full of potential and hope.

Imagine you are holding your seeds and ponder.

What might God be saying to you?

What hope does God have for you and your future?

We pray for what is in our hearts...

Silence for personal prayer

Reader

Seeds need the right conditions to grow.

Where do seeds of hope need planting in your life?

Pause

Where do seeds of hope need planting in your community?

Pause

How can these seeds of hope be nourished in your life; in your community?

Pause

We pray for these places and situations...

Silence

Reader

Take these seeds and plant them as a reminder of God’s constant love and your hopes.

Candle #7 The seventh candle is lit.

All

God, giver of life,
we light a candle of hope
and participate with all your people in responsive prayerful action to bring to life the plans and promises you have for us

HYMN      Hymn of Promise (see last page)

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION – The Church of the Good Shepherd

Leader      Let us pray:
For all who are hungry, who do not have enough to live with dignity; that they may find generosity in their communities.

Silence

God, in your mercy

All            Hear our prayer

Leader      For all who are abused in any way, whose homes or places of study or work are places not of safety but of fear; that they may be strengthened and freed from abusers and fear.

Silence

God, in your mercy

All            Hear our prayer.

Leader      For all who live in loneliness or isolation;
that they may know friendship and community.

Silence

God, in your mercy

All            Hear our prayer

Leader      For all who are shunned, from whom people turn away; that they may be included and know themselves loved as children of God.

Silence

God, in your mercy

All            Hear our prayer.

Leader For all who have been displaced, who live in exile and in fear of losing everything they have ever known; that they may know God's peace and strength in their lives.

Silence

All God, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Leader Let us commend ourselves and all for whom we pray, to the mercy and protection of God. In the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Leader Let us pray as our Saviour taught us.
The Lord's Prayer (in your own language)
Amen

OFFERING - Solid Rock Wesleyan Church

Leader The World Day of Prayer is a worldwide, ecumenical, women led movement. Each year, we admire the strength of the communities who participate; we empathize with their cares; we are encouraged by their faith; and we stand in solidarity with each other through our prayers and actions.
In Canada, under the leadership of the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada your offering funds World Day of Prayer as well as grants for projects to restore hope to women touched by injustice.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Leader 2 Gracious God, we thank you and worship you for all the blessings you have bestowed upon us, for family and friends, home, food, and water. We praise you for leading us to be creative and being able to support our families. We offer to you a small portion of these blessings of money and service. We dedicate them to the World Day of Prayer that will share these gifts with the communities in need here and around the world. Amen

HYMN 505 vs 1,3,4 Be Thou My Vision

*The offering plate is located at the back of the church, during this hymn, the offering will be brought forward. You may also donate by visiting:
<https://wicc.org/donate-online/>*

PRAYER OF DEDICATION FOR OFFERING

Leader 2 Faithful God, knowing that your plans for our lives are good and your promises to be trusted, we offer these gifts in praise and thanksgiving. May they be used according to your will for the benefit of all your people.

HYMN 371 vs 1 & 3 To God be the Glory

BLESSING The Rev. Lynn Courage

DISMISSAL

Leader We thank you, loving God, that we have been gathered in your presence and shared in worship.

Now may we go forth into the world, confident that we are your children, knowing that you have called us by name.

In our daily lives may we align ourselves to your will, seeking direction to follow your plan and patience in the waiting.

In the challenges and joys we face, may we be assured we do not face them alone.

In the name of God, the giver of life, let us go in peace, hope, and love.

All

Amen

Hymn of Promise

In the bulb there is a flower;
In the seed an apple tree;
In cocoons, a hidden promise:
butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter,
there`s a spring that waits to be,
Unrevealed until its season,
Something God alone can see.

There`s a song in every silence,
seeking word and melody;
There`s a dawn in every darkness,
bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future;
what it holds, a mystery,
Unrevealed until its season,
Something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning;
in our time, infinity;
In our doubt there is believing,
a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season,
Something God alone can see.

Sleeth, Natalie.
